

Appia Communications Recognized on the CRN Fast Growth 100 List for Third Straight Year | Annual list by CRN Magazine recognizes the fastest growing technology solution providers in North America

TRAVERSE CITY, MI - September 26, 2011 - Appia Communications, a leading provider of managed communications and network services, was again named to CRN Fast Growth 100 list. Companies on the list average a two-year growth of 130 percent.

"We are very pleased to again be honored on this year's Fast Growth 100 list. This award is a testament to the hard work of our channel partners and technology team," said Victor von Schlegell, president of Appia Communications. "By delivering services that lower customer costs and complexity, we continue to see increasing demand for our hosted VoIP, SIP trunking, and cloud services."

"This year's Fast Growth 100 list reflects the high growth potential for solution providers offering innovative products, solutions and services," said Kelley Damore, Vice President and Editorial Director for Everything Channel. "Despite an uncertain market, VARs investing in new technologies and services are still growing at a significant rate - a testament to their hard work and ability to truly understand their customers' needs. We congratulate Appia Communications on their well-earned success."

The 2011 CRN Fast Growth category and special awards will be presented during the annual conference, taking place October 5-6 in Miami.

Appia has gained recognition as one of America's fastest-growing private companies (Inc., 2007-11); one of the fastest-growing solution providers in the technology industry (CRN, 2009-11); and one of the top managed service providers in the world (MSPmentor, 2009-11). Appia has also been named one of the 2010 Michigan 50 Companies to Watch by the Edward Lowe Foundation.
