

Appia Communications Launches Free Virtual Suggestion Box Service

Traverse City, MI – April 4, 2008 - Appia Communications, a leading provider of managed IT and telecommunications services to small and mid-sized companies and organizations, today announced a new, free service for its customers.

SpeakFreely is a virtual suggestion box. Organizations sign up for a SpeakFreely account then distribute their SpeakFreely password to their users, who can login to SpeakFreely to email, anonymously if they choose, suggestions to the organization's SpeakFreely Coordinator.

SpeakFreely is a service that gives companies and organizations a simple way to do what traditional suggestion boxes do. SpeakFreely is perfect for any company or organization, but especially those whose people work in different locations or who are often on the road. Users can send a SpeakFreely message from anywhere and at any time.

Best of all, SpeakFreely is free for Appia customers.
